New and Interesting Happenings Within Our Borders.

OUT OF MONEY.

The New Bakery Inspection Law Can Not Be Put Into Execution In Consequence.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19.—State Shop Inspector Knaub, in whose hands the duty of enforcing the new bakery inspection law is put, says it looks as if nothing can be done in the matter until the next legislature meets. Though the state emergency board has authorized an expenditure sufficient to carry on the work, it has been found impossible under the circumstances to induce any bank to advance the funds. It would have to wait for repayment for at least two years. With the present tight money market the banks do not feel like assuming this additional loan. Mr. Knaub says he will not appoint the two additional inspectors provided for under the new law until he is assured that there will be money at hand to pay their salaries.

Druggist Tired of Life.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19.—Adolph Kolb, a druggist at the corner of Mt. Vernon and Jefferson avenues here, attempted to commit suicide Friday by taking morphine. Kolb is a prominent man, and at one time was president of the Columbus Druggists' association. He is about 40 years of age. Kolb died late Friday night.

In Minnesota, the Dakotas and greater portion of Montana the moving temperature is below freezing, and killing frosts occurred in Nebraska. A general rain is falling in the lake regions and north of Lake Superior it is snowing."

The House Wouldn't Burn.

AKRON, O., Sept. 19.—Some unknown persons made an attempt Friday afternoon to burn down the residence of Gustave Hunt, 306 Power street. When Mrs. Hunt returned home at supper time she found the carpets on the lower floor saturated with coal oil. Holes had been burned in the floor, but the fact that the house was closed shut off all draft and smothered the flames.

The brothers are Henry Summers, Nova, O., aged 80; Adam Summers, Charlotte, Mich., aged 77; David Summers, Cleveland, O., aged 70; Jacob Summers, Orange, this county, aged 68.

Strange Bedfellows.

The thought of sleeping with such bedfellows disgusts Uncle Sam.

Fighting Their Shadows.

The sixteen to one agitators who are urging the people to fight an imaginary money power are merely warring against their own shadows. The only "money power" in this country is a creature of the silverite's imagination which is to be found nowhere because it has no real existence. Like the man whose fears of ghosts and hobgoblins lead him to see in his shadow cast by the moon a frightful monster ready to devour him, the cheap money advocates see in the effects of their attack on our financial system the work of an evil demon which is destroying business and impoverishing the people. It is not creditable to the common sense of the American voters that the ghost stories of deluded believers in free silver should be listened to, much less so that any considerable number of people should be scared by phantoms into accepting a gospel one-half humbug and one-half repudiation.

As long as gold, either from its intrinsic superiority as a metal, from its rarity or from the prejudices of mankind, retains so considerable a pre-eminence in value over silver as it has hitherto had, a natural consequence of this seems to be that its condition will be more stationary. The revolutions, therefore, which may take place in the comparative value of gold and silver will be changes in the state of the latter rather than in that of the former.—Alexander Hamilton.

Chicago's Latest Innovation.

An expert burglar who has served several terms in penitentiaries for his activity in his profession has recently begun giving lectures on the gentle art of stealing in Chicago. He exhibits an entire burglar's kit and tells how the different implements are used. His lectures are well attended and are very interesting—especially to the police.
